

ECOGREEN ONLINE COURSE

THEME 4 – SELF- LEARNING ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITY 1

Check out the website of CSX (Community Supported X), a network that tries to apply the principles of CSA to health, care, or energy provisioning <https://gemeinschaftstragen.de/en/>. Read up on the principles of community supported organizations in other areas and think of a concrete example: How could you start such a sustainable organization and business? What would it mean to produce and consume in a community? How could you organize a needs-based production and consumption? How could you organize a solidarity

ADDITIONAL SELF-STUDY MATERIALS

Links:

The international Network for community supported agriculture: <https://urgenci.net/>.

For community supported organizations in other areas check out CSX (Community Supported X), a network that tries to apply the principles of CSA to health, care, or energy provisioning: <https://gemeinschaftstragen.de/en/>.

If you are now interested into community supported agriculture, visit Overtura's Website <https://www.overtura.at/> or a mapping of all CSA's in Austria <https://solawi.life/solawi-finden/>

Deepening Literature:

Ricciardi, V., Mehrabi, Z., Wittman, H., James, D. et al. (2021). Higher yields and more biodiversity on smaller farms. Nature Sustainability, 1-7.

Gonzaga, Diego (10.15.2021): 4 myths about industrial agriculture. (retrieved 11.08.2023) from

Ritchie, Hannah (2021) - "Smallholders produce one-third of the world's food, less than half of what many headlines claim" Published online at OurWorldInData.org. (retrieved 11.08.2023) from: <https://ourworldindata.org/smallholder-food-production>